

A Retrospective at Walpole.

A retrospective exhibition of the artwork of the late Linda Holmes will take place in the Old Chapel at Walpole, a building which benefitted so much from the commitment and care and that both she and David held so dear.

This exhibition will be of paintings as well as wood engravings and the print content will include previously unseen works as these have now all been catalogued.

A selection of her work will be on display in the chapel from Wednesday the 14th to Saturday the 17th of June 2017 between 11.00 a.m. and 4.30 p.m.

A Private View will be held at tea time (4.30 p.m.) on Tuesday the 13th. If you wish to attend the Private View will you please contact Christina on the email address below so that we have some idea for catering purposes.

Jack Stephenson
Christina van Melzen
chrisvanmelzen@outlook.com